PRESS RELEASE

Crow Wing County Sheriff Scott Goddard announces the relocation of a Level 3 predatory offender into rural Crow Wing County. Terrance Lee Lindmark, 57 yrs. old, is homeless in the vicinity of French Rapids, rural Brainerd, MN 56401.

Sheriff Goddard says that there will not be a public notification meeting on Mr. Lindmark as he has been a resident of Crow Wing County for many years and has been monitored by the Sheriff's Office prior to becoming homeless. Sheriff Goddard has notified residents who are living within the area of Mr. Lindmark's reported location and provided them with a public information fact sheet. Sheriff Goddard says, "My office has a very proactive monitoring system for Predatory Offenders who are living in Crow Wing County and they are checked on by our deputies regularly. I want to assure the public that we are extremely vigilant on monitoring and checking on Mr. Lindmark and other predatory offenders in the community".

Sheriff Goddard reminds citizens that they can always visit the predatory offender search via the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension website.

Attached is the public information fact sheet on Terrance Lindmark along with recent booking photos.
