PRESS RELEASE

Sheriff Scott Goddard would like to inform the public that missing person, Jenna Bartylla, has been located. Jenna was found deceased early Friday morning in a wooded area not far from where she was reportedly last seen by witnesses.

Early Friday morning, Sheriff's deputies and members of the Crow Wing County Drone Team organized a search of the area. Shortly after starting the search, the body of Jenna Bartylla was located by the Drone Team. Deputies secured the area and are processing the scene.

Sheriff Scott Goddard says, "At this point, we have no indication of foul play. However, we are not done processing the scene. Currently my investigators are still trying to locate witnesses in this case." " This is not the outcome we had hoped for in this case. Our prayers and thoughts are with Jenna's family and friends".
